

“An Evening with ‘The Book of Questions’”

How do you "play" The Book of Questions? That's a good question!

Come join us for a fun and exciting round of questions that always spark new questions.

If you've been living and paying attention you can play.

All answers are good especially the ones with new questions tucked inside.

Come share the joy of who you are, who you've been, and who you may yet become.

Led by Joe Tedesco
