

“A Study Group”

What is baptism? What is the United Methodist understanding of baptism? What does baptism mean to me? These questions and more will be a part of this study and discussion group.

Using “By Water and the Spirit” by Gayle Carlton Felton and materials provided by the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference’s “Water and Roots” emphasis, we will discuss the meaning of baptism for our lives. We will explore Bible passages, our United Methodist understanding, our Baptismal Liturgy, and our own experiences to rediscover the power of this transformational experience and act of grace in our lives.
